Thanks, Janet. So once I enter EPA-R6-2015-001601, the 169 items it brings up are all the releaseable documents we have on this case, correct? And to access each document, you click on the yellow highlight, then on the "Title" hyperlink in the individual record detail?

<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/search/>

There was a previous request for DuPont La Porte

It has a number of EPA-R6-2015-001601

Records have already been released and are available by going to the above link. The searcher must enter EPA as several agencies use the same system.

There is no disk. The public can see the request and the records on line.

Another division has this extended, I don't know their status with the request.
